OUR SOCIETY

The Southern California Genealogical Society (SCGS) and Family Research Library was organized in 1964. SCGS exists to foster interest in family history and genealogy, preserve genealogical materials, and provide instruction in accepted and effective research techniques.

The Society is a tax-exempt, non-profit corporation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Donations of books, money, library materials or supplies qualify as charitable contributions to the extent allowed by law.

Membership dues support 40% of the costs of operating the Society and maintaining the Library. The balance is made up through the Southern California Genealogy Jamboree, other fundraisers, and monetary donations. Many hours of volunteer time go into keeping the Society and Library operating. We have no paid employees.
