

Social Media Policy

The Southern California Genealogical Society is an active supporter of the use of social media (such as Facebook, Twitter, and blogging) at its events, including the Society's annual conference, the Genealogy Jamboree. Event attendees are allowed and encouraged to promote, critique, and review the conference, its exhibitors, speakers, and activities using these forms of media.

Use of smartphones, netbooks, laptops, etc., shall not disrupt other attendees. Mobile device ringers must be set to silent during lecture sessions.

Attendees are prohibited from recording the proceedings of any lecture or workshop session by any means, including but not limited to photography, audio recording, video recording, or verbatim transcription, without expressed written permission from both SCGS and the lecture speaker. Some sessions will be professionally audio recorded and available after the event.

Social media may be used to summarize or extract lecture content provided: (1) the author is referenced and cited appropriately; and (2) material is not shared in full.

We fully respect the intellectual property rights of the authors of syllabus materials and lecture content. Copyright laws apply.

Lost and Found

Lost and Found items should be turned in to the Jamboree registration desk in the Convention Center.

Unclaimed items will be transferred to hotel security at 6:00 p.m. each day.

Menus and Food Choices

Hungry? You have lots of options for meals this year.

The Daily Grill offers luncheon specials. You can call ahead and have the meal ready for you. If you are staying at the hotel, you can even arrange for room service and enjoy a quiet, relaxing few minutes away from the Jamboree bustle.

Convention Center Concessions

We are very pleased with arrangements made for the food concession this year. The serving line will be set up outside in the quad (the grassy area between the main hotel and the convention center.) That will allow us to have additional seating in the convention center west foyer.

Please note that these are only examples of the types of food typically available from the concession. Substitutions will be made at the Marriott's discretion.

Paper or Plastic: What's Your Choice?

The Jamboree syllabus is available in print and CD format. A few notes about the syllabus:

If you received a format (print or CD) that you do not want, we will be glad to take it off your hands. Just put it in the basket marked "Syllabus" on the left side of the registration desk.

Adobe Reader is required to view the CD version. Download your free copy of Adobe Reader at <http://www.adobe.com>

To use the CD version, insert the CD into the CD/DVD reader on your computer. It will open to the sponsor page. You'll see some small icons on the left hand column. Click on the second icon to find bookmarks that will take you directly to each section.

Door Prizes

Through the generosity of the genealogical community and Los Angeles area business owners, we are able to offer over $18,000 worth of gifts for our door prize drawing.

This year we have two grand prizes. The first is a 7-night stay at the Salt Lake Plaza Hotel with $200 toward travel expenses. The second is a stay at the Salt Lake Plaza Hotel, along with a research trip conducted by Ancestor Seekers. These are just two of more than 125 prizes.

Each paid registrant will receive one door prize ticket in their name badge packet. Additional tickets will be available for sale throughout the weekend. Raffle Central is located in a kiosk in the Convention Center. Drawings will be held from the kiosk, and winners will be posted nearby.

Tickets can be purchased:

- At the SCGS sales table
- At the registration table
- At the Raffle Central book
- From strolling ticket sellers
