

Southern California Genealogical Society

Genealogical Seminar

Ensuring Your Place in History

One day you will become an ancestor and your descendants will search for your history. If you have ever felt frustration trying to find an ancestor or prove an individual's relationship to you, then you understand just how important it is to preserve your own information for future generations. Rediscover traditional methods and new ways to preserving your own life.

This half-day seminar and workshop provides you with the tools to ensure your place in history:

- Recording a compelling account of your life
- Getting beyond "boring"
- Preserving your life for future generations

Register today and learn how to preserve your life for future generations!

October 22, 2005 • 10am to 2pm
at the SCGS Library in Burbank

417 Irving Dr., Burbank, CA 91504 • 818-843-7247

Andy Pomeroy is an author, computer specialist and renowned public speaker. He is also the lead programmer for My Life Story, an initiative to find a fun and easy way to help people record their memoirs. Andy has authored four books.

Tom Underhill is the publisher at Creative Continuum, a publishing company specializing in family history books. Tom and his company produced more than 80 family history heirloom books and scanned more than 6,000 photographs. Tom is the lead architect for My Life Story and is the author of seven books.

Tom and Andy have spoken at national and international genealogical events.

Name
Address
City, State Zip
Phone Number
Email address (required to receive class materials)

Please bill my  MasterCard  Visa  Discover  Check Enclosed Account Number _____ Exp. ___/___
Name on Card _____
Signature _____

Ensuring Your Place in History
October 22, 2005 • 10am to 2pm
$40 per person SCGS member
$50 per person non-member

Make check or money order to:

SCGS
417 Irving Dr.
Burbank, CA 91504

or register by phone
818-843-7247

Don't delay
Seating limited to the first 100 registrants!

Come prepared with...

Please select one of the following four topics and write your experiences and feelings:

- Paint a word picture of your bedroom while growing up
- Describe your first wreck and what “they” said.
- Describe your thoughts and feelings about death.
- Talk about the nicest thing you’ve ever anonymously done for someone.

Register today and learn how to preserve your life for future generations!