

Colonial Dames Topic Is History

Mrs.
low
of
on-
ing

is

Ruth Enyeart, founder of the Southern California Genealogical Society, will discuss "Researching With Historical Maps" when Col. Nathaniel Pope Chapter, Colonial Dames of the XVIIth Century, assembles at 11 a.m. Saturday in Fred-Rick's Restaurant, 14550 Nordhoff St., Panorama City.

Mrs. Enyeart a member of the Lancaster, Pa., Historical Society and Community Historical Society, will trace family migration to the West.

Mrs. Wayne Foster, president, and Mrs. William C. Powell, treasurer, are delegates to the national conference of the Colonial Dames of the XVIIth Century in Washington, D.C., this month.

ten
tude
Dece
vide
their
level
TH
will pers
inter
thr
D.C., liam
ceive
$500
will
ships
$200

TU

OR CH

scgs Ruth Enyeart, founder of the SCGS speaks at Fred-Rick's Restaurant in Panorama City

