IRISH INTEREST GROUP

The Irish Interest Group of the Southern California Genealogical Society is dedicated to promoting interest in and supporting those who are researching their Irish heritage. We welcome those whose ancestors spent even a short amount of time in Ireland.

We have a growing collection of books in the Scots-Irish section. Highlights include:

- The Great Book of Irish Genealogies
- The Kenmare Manuscripts
- MacLysaght's books
- 1659 Census of Ireland
- Casey collection
- Famine Immigrants
- Irish Passenger Lists
- O'Hart's Irish Pedigrees
- Gravestone Inscriptions
- Plantations in Ulster
- Monumental Inscriptions Scotland
- Scottish Settlers in North America and many, many more.

The Irish Interest Group meets at the SCGS Library from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. whenever there is a fifth Sunday in the month. We have discussed a variety of topics ranging from Irish history and its influence on our research to the latest online records. We mix historical facts with research tips and look at the newest online resources and databases as they become available. We are constantly reviewing what records are available in the library, as well as online, to help with our research; and what substitute records can be used to fill in the gaps.

Come and explore new and exciting ways to find those elusive Irish ancestors of yours.

We look forward to seeing you at our upcoming meetings:
